

LOUISIANA STATE EXHIBIT MUSEUM

3015 Greenwood Road, Shreveport, LA 71109

Presents

CHARLIE BOB

THE RED-NECKED ALLIGATOR

PRESENTATIONS ON FRIDAYS

September 2007 through April 2008

9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. (excluding holidays)

Schedule a fun-filled, educational presentation at the Louisiana State Exhibit Museum about Charlie Bob's trip from the swamps in south Louisiana to his home in the museum's patio pool. The story will be read and acted out by costumed museum staff, giving the students an opportunity to learn that they can enjoy a reptile and, at the same time, respect its environment.

The Louisiana State Exhibit Museum is operated by the Louisiana Secretary of State. The building is wheelchair accessible and parking is provided. Admission to the museum, as well as the program, is free.

PROGRAM DESIGNED FOR KINDERGARTEN
